THE 2026 SHOW

FORGING TIMELESS CONNECTIONS

Join us for the 24th Annual Georgia Association of Convenience Stores (GACS) Southern Convenience Store and Petroleum Show, The SHOW! There is so much excitement around The SHOW this year as we host in our new location, the Historic Iron Works and Columbus Convention & Trade Center in charming, revitalized downtown Columbus, Georgia!

The SHOW provides store owners, operators and buyers with a preview of the latest and greatest for the c-store industry – from food service to fuel; novelties to snacks; and everything in between. The SHOW provides a platform for convenience store suppliers to showcase products and services to key decision makers from across Georgia. Retail attendance is FREE!!! Please invite your customers to register in advance!

GACS is focused on building industry relationships as strong as iron; The SHOW is THE place to make it happen! Join us in October to Forge Timeless Connections!

GACS: Standing The Test Of Time

GACS was formed in 1973 and is one of the most respected state associations in the country. GACS represents the legislative interests of convenience stores across the state from large chains to regional chains to independent operators. GACS is also supported by a strong and active Associate Membership. Associate members consist of wholesalers and vendors offering goods and services to the convenience store industry. GACS hosts events throughout the year to foster industry relationships. Legislative, educational and networking events bring our industry together in a unique and valuable way. Membership info is available on request or at www.GACS.com.

The SHOW traditions are timeless, but the updates are built for progress!

- New City! Columbus, GA
- New Venue! The Historic Iron Works and Columbus Convention Center
- New Format! The SHOW will publish a SHOW DEALS book! Exhibitors are encouraged to offer show-only deals!
- New Excitement! The SHOW will feature a DJ on the floor to assist in facilitating booth games, give-aways and announcements. Plan to make the most of this service by offering give-a-ways at your booth!

The SHOW Rules

To avoid interference with other exhibitors, the following guidelines are in place:

- Booths can not interfere with the space of other exhibitors.
- The front half of the booth shall not be higher than 60" without permission from The SHOW.
- Booth construction higher than the 8' back wall requires permission from The SHOW.
- End cap exhibitors shall construct booths in such a way that it does not interfere with the straight-line sight down the aisle.
- GACS reserves the right to make changes to maintain show appearance and line of sight protection for all exhibitors.

Conducting Exhibits

- Exhibits must be manned during show hours.
- Electrical or other mechanical apparatus must be muffled so noise does not interfere with other exhibitors.
- Interviews, demonstrations, distribution of literature, samples and detailing should take place inside booths to avoid infringement of the rights and privileges of other exhibitors.
- Exhibitors shall protect machinery and exhibits so no injury will result to visitors, guests, employees or any other persons or property.
- No engines operated indoors with volatile or combustible fuels.
- GACS reserves the right to refuse a booth application due to concerns not meeting standards required or expected, as well as the right to curtail exhibits or parts of an exhibit which reflect against the character of The SHOW.

Subletting of Booth Space

The subletting, assignment or apportionment of the whole or any part of space by any exhibitor is prohibited without written consent of GACS. No exhibitor may permit any other party to exhibit in his space any goods other than those manufactured or handled by the contracting exhibitor. No exhibitor may permit the solicitation of business by others within his space.

Additional Terms and Conditions

Liability and Insurance

Exhibitors agree to protect and keep harmless and otherwise indemnify GACS, Iron Works/ Columbus Convention Center, and their employees and agents from any and all claims for damages, suits, etc. by any and all persons or others which may result on account of injury, loss or damage sustained upon the space occupied by the exhibitor, or on account of machinery and property under control of an exhibitor. By signing a contract to exhibit, the exhibitor expressly understands that he releases GACS and Iron Works / Columbus Convention Center, and their agents from (and agrees to indemnify each against) any and all claims for any such loss, injury, or damage, and will defend same if a claim is made at no cost to these parties.

Security and Insurance

The SHOW cannot guarantee against loss or damage of any kind, but will protect exhibitors by providing security in the exhibit area from 5:00pm Wednesday, Oct. 21, 2026 until the close of show at 4:00pm Thursday, Oct. 22, 2026. Exhibitors wishing to insure their exhibit materials, goods and/or wares on exhibit against theft, damage by fire, accident or loss of any kind must do so at their own expense.

Protection of the Building

Exhibitors will be held liable for any damages caused to the property, and no material or matter of any kind shall be posted on, tacked, nailed, screwed or otherwise attached to columns, walls, floors or other parts or portions of the building or furnishings. Whatever may be necessary to properly protect the building, equipment or furniture will be installed at the expense of the exhibitor. If any controversy arises as to the need or property thereof, GACS and The Iron Works will be the final judges thereof and their decision shall be binding on all parties concerned.

Fire Protection

All materials used in the exhibit area must be flame-proofed and fire resistant in order to conform to local fire ordinances and in accordance with regulations established by the National Association of Fire Underwriters.

Excelsior or other paper is not to be used in crafting merchandise. Display racks, signs, spotlights and special equipment must be approved before use, and all displays are subject to inspection by fire prevention authorities. Any exhibit or parts thereof found not to be fireproof may be ordered dismantled. All aisles must be clear at all times and fire stations and fire extinguisher equipment are not to be covered or obstructed.

Interpretation & Violation

Any points not covered above or elsewhere are subject to settlement by the management. Any violation of these rules and regulations by any exhibitor will void the agreement for booth space, and such exhibitor will forfeit all monies which have been paid or are due under this contract. The SHOW shall have the right to terminate the agreement for booth space and to re-enter and take possession of the space occupied by an exhibitor, and to remove all persons and goods from the space at the expense of the exhibitor. Written notice to terminate the agreement for booth space and of re-entry is not required.

"The Southern Convenience Store and Petroleum Show is one of the few places where members and non-members alike can walk the floor alongside vendors who are genuinely invested in our industry. Whether you're reconnecting with a longtime partner or discovering a brand just breaking into our market, The SHOW puts everything within reach."

-Slaton Whatley, Whatley Oil Co.
Trade Show Chair

"The Show has for years been the one time of year I may see some customers and is a critical milestone for our long-term relationships that cannot be substituted. This year's new venue in a new location is certain to capitalize on the growing excitement and momentum within GACS to cement the legacy of The SHOW as integral in our business relationships."

-Mark Faas, Point to Point Environmental Supplier Committee Chair
